Senator Pat McNamara has advised us of your recent letter to him in which you suggest that organizational changes in this Agency might be made which would create an opportunity for employment with us.

Your continued interest in our service is very much appreciated. However, there have been no significant changes in our current or projected staffing requirements since your application was last considered and we have not located a vacancy which would accommodate your employment.

Your application has been placed in our active file and we shall advise you if a suitable opening should develop at some future time.

Sincerely,

Signed

E. D. Echols
